Free Opportunity for Businesses to Prepare their Future Workforce

-- Junior Achievement statewide career exploration events for students aged 13-25 --

With 61?percent of Nevada's jobs projected to require additional training beyond high school by 2031 – and nearly three-quarters of U.S. jobs demanding postsecondary credentials – businesses must prepare to have the necessary workforce. Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada provides a free solution with the return of JA Inspire. The in-person and virtual statewide career exploration program offers employers a vital opportunity to connect early with an expected 12,000 future talents, ages 13–25. By participating, local companies not only help students discover career pathways but also ensure a stronger, more skilled workforce that will meet next generation employment needs.

The next Las Vegas in-person expos will be 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 5 and Thursday, Nov. 6, 2025, and again on Wednesday, Feb. 4 and Thursday, Feb. 5, 2026, in Student Union Ballroom A, B and C at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV). The companion virtual fair will be available online from Nov. 5, 2025 through Feb. 5, 2026, allowing extended student engagement and access to exhibitor and other career information.

JA Inspire targets students with a unique opportunity to explore high-demand careers and pathways, plan their route to achieve them, and engage directly with Nevada's leading employers and industries. Prior to arrival, middle and high school participants will do a career assessment that will help guide their exploration of career clusters and education pathways. The experience is timed to help students align their high school course selections with future career interests.

Companies of all types are welcome, and it's free to exhibit at both the in-person and virtual forums. Past industry participants covered public safety (police, fire, military), education and training, finance/banking, hospitality, technology, trade careers, apprentice opportunities and more.

Wells Fargo is the Event Sponsor; Reliaquest is the Catering Sponsor; and Delta is the Goody Bag Sponsor. Several other sponsorships are still available, including the Auditorium Sponsor for $10,000 and Transportation Sponsor for $8,000. There are increasing awareness and exposure opportunities with each level.

The local in-person fairs offer more than just career booths for an expected 4,000 students, who will attend career-readiness workshops, campus tours, and panels on college admissions, financial aid, and how to get hired. They'll also engage directly with employers in the expo hall, making meaningful face-to-face connections with potential mentors, role models, and employers.

Virtual exhibitors receive a custom-branded booth and can provide downloadable PDFs, resources and industry-specific videos. They also have the opportunity to engage and inspire an additional 8,000 students across Nevada through a partnership with Junior Achievement of Northern Nevada to ensure access and reach for students statewide.

Businesses and organizations can register for JA Inspire now to sponsor or exhibit. For more information, contact Justin Minton at 702-209-1530 or justin.minton@ja.org.

Exhibitor/sponsor details are available here.

Two Sides of the Same Signature: A landlord–tenant lease in real time.

Every contract contains three constant components: negotiation, terms, and enforceability. What changes is how those components are understood, interpreted, and leveraged. In this Nevada Business Edge Series session, two experienced attorneys examine the same tenant lease from opposing perspectives. One represents the landlord. The other represents the tenant. Through live discussion and debate, they reveal how contractual language evolves, where negotiation truly exists, and which terms matter most when tested.

Attendees will gain insight into how all contracts work, what assumptions business owners commonly make, and where risk and flexibility are often misunderstood.

Moderator: Chuck Mohler

Sparring Attorneys: Aviva Gordon, Esq. and Neil Sansone, Esq.

As the beginning of a new Mother's Day tradition, the 41st Annual Shareholders in Life Fundraising Gala & Silent Auction invites us to reflect on the eternal promise of the Crown of Life. Rooted in the beauty and sacrifice of motherhood, our theme honors the mothers who courageously choose life and the community that stands beside them.

The crown is not only a symbol of victory and eternal reward but also of love's triumph through generations. Just as a mother's love crowns her child with dignity and hope, your partnership helps crown families in our community with life, support, and the assurance that they are not alone.

Join us for an unforgettable evening of celebration, fellowship, and generosity as we uplift mothers, cherish the gift of life, and share in God's promise of hope.
