Professional Biography:

Hollie Chadwick was appointed Captain in July 2019. She joined the Henderson Police Department in August 2002. Captain Chadwick was raised in Las Vegas and attended the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) where she earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Athletic Training, a Bachelor of Science Degree in Sports and Fitness Management, and a Master's Degree in Kinesiology. Captain Chadwick went on to earn her Doctorate in Public Administration with Capella University, where she graduated with Distinction.

Captain Chadwick was a member of the Nationally Ranked UNLV Softball team from 1990-1994 and participated in four Division Regional Championships and the College World Series in 1991.

Captain Chadwick leads one of three patrol divisions in the Henderson Police Department. The City of Henderson is the second largest city in Nevada with 390 police officers, 83 corrections officers, and more than 160 full-time civilian employees. In addition, Captain Chadwick oversees our bicycle unit and Problem-Solving Unit.

As a police officer, Captain Chadwick served as an officer in charge, a field training officer, a crisis negotiator, a bicycle officer, a drug recognition expert, a defensive tactics instructor, and a police dog decoy. Captain Chadwick served as a detective working fraud, property, repeat offender, and intelligence cases. She also served on a Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) task force for two years.

Captain Chadwick was promoted to sergeant in 2011 and served in patrol, as a member of our Crisis Negotiation Team, and supervised our Problem-Solving Unit. She was a Field Training Sergeant (FTS) and was promoted to lieutenant in 2015. As a lieutenant, Captain Chadwick oversaw our swing shift patrol, Special Weapons and Tactics

(SWAT), K9 unit, and ARMOR unit. Captain Chadwick was the first female commander to oversee a SWAT team in Southern Nevada.

Captain Chadwick graduated from the FBI National Academy #280 in December 2021. The FBI National Academy is internationally known for its academic excellence. Less than one percent of law enforcement leaders are selected to attend this prestigious academy.

In October 2021, Captain Chadwick was appointed to the International Association of Chiefs of Police's committee on Homeland Security.

Captain Chadwick is an advocate for diversity and inclusion and spearheads the Henderson Police Departments women's leadership efforts.
