

Steve Mitchell serves as Assistant Vice President, ADA (Americans With Disabilities) Coordinator and Diversity & Inclusion Co-Lead at Barclays US Consumer Bank, in the Henderson, NV, office. Steve ensures that all products and services are in compliance with the ADA regulations, as well as assisting with D&I/ERG activities in Nevada and Ohio.

He previously worked at Bank of America in Phoenix, AZ, from 1991 – 2014 in a wide range of roles from Accounting to Business Disaster Recovery Planning to Operations Management including both Call Center and Back Shop Operations.

Steve was born in Connecticut but lived most of his life in the Phoenix area. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Arizona State University in 1988. After graduation, he began his professional career in the New York metropolitan area before returning to Phoenix and working for Bank of America.

Steve is on the Board of Directors of Las Vegas Pride and helped open the Henderson Equality Center. Steve is a past Finalist of Barclays Global Citizenship Award for his work in Diversity and Inclusion.

In his spare time, Steve enjoys performing music, working out, studying natural healing techniques, such as Reiki and Native American Sacred Medicine, along with other ancient disciplines, volunteering at Pride events and spending time with his pet snake.