

Anthony Gladney
Vice President, Diversity & Inclusion
MGM Resorts International

Tony Gladney serves as Vice President of Diversity & Inclusion in the department of Social Impact and Sustainability for MGM Resorts International, one of the world's leading global hospitality Companies. Gladney has recently assumed oversight of Diversity & Inclusion for the company, which focuses on the design, development, and implementation of a comprehensive D & I strategy. He continues to be responsible for enhancing the Company relationships with strategic Diversity and Inclusion partners at the local, state, and national levels; collaborating with other company departments to facilitate external organization resources to fulfill Corporate Diversity goals; and leveraging national relationships to support Company business development.

In addition, Gladney has served in various roles while in the gaming industry including Community, Diversity, Human Resources, and Governmental areas of focus. He attended the University of Nevada Las Vegas on a full scholarship where he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Liberal Studies with an emphasis in Business Communications. He was voted UNLV's 2001 and 2005 College of Liberal Arts Alumnus of the Year, making him one of the only two-time recipients in the school's history to receive that honor. Gladney played professional football for the San Francisco Forty Niners from 1987 to 1988.

His hobbies include music, athletic activities, cooking, and volunteerism.
